

New Shooter Orientation Seminars

Revolvers & Semi-Automatic Handguns

Sunday, Sept 10, 2023: 9am to 12pm

New to shooting? Purchased a new firearm? Not sure what to do next?

Redmond Rod & Gun Club wants to help by offering a “new shooter orientation” (NSO) seminars for handguns and rifles. Our NSO seminars facilitate getting started in shooting sports and help provide the confidence that will encourage enjoyment and safety. Seminars, which are led by Certified Instructors, cover the following:

- An educational introduction to safe and recreational use of firearms
- An overview about how to use the range at RRGc including basic rules for safety
- Basic firearm handling and shooting principles
- Live-fire exercise
- Firearm storage & maintenance

Cost*: $30 per person: Register and pay via our website: www.RRandGC.com/education-programs

* Each participant may request / use a $20 discount towards an online (only) purchase of our Annual Family Membership at the conclusion of the course.

 While the instructors are Certified , this is not an official NRA class or curriculum.

Requirements (No Exceptions):

- Protective eyewear
- Hearing protection
- Firearm – Bring your own firearm (cased & unloaded)
- Ammunition appropriate for your firearm
- Minimum Age: 18 Years

Time & Location:

- 9am – 10am: Trap Range Office for classroom instruction
- 10am – 12pm: Rifle/Pistol Range for live-fire exercises
- Address: 9020 S Hwy 97, Redmond, OR 97756
