

ODFW HUNTER EDUCATION COURSES

Independent Study Field Day Courses: Will be offered in Redmond during July, September, and November. These courses require successfully completing an ODFW approved online course prior to attending.

Date and registration information for these and other courses throughout Oregon are posted on the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife's hunter education website:

<https://www.MyODFW.com/articles/hunter-education-classes-field-days>

LOCATION: Class session in Redmond at the Highland Baptist Church. The outdoor range portion will be at the Redmond Rod and Gun Club.

REGISTRATION: Online at website above.

COST: $10 per student paid at registration.

Students successfully completing the course receive their Hunter Education Certificate.

For additional information contact: Brian Ferry (541) 923-3136